* During the current financial year, all the existing shareholders entered into a share purchase agreement whereby the substantial number of shares of the company will be ultimately sold to a new set of shareholders / purchasers as per the said agreement. The company has obtained approval from IRDAI for such transfer of shares including the recognition of some of the purchasers as promoters. The process of share transfer is in progress and for share transfers effected till the year end is depicted as above, while the balance share transfer is expected to be completed subsequent to the year end.
